Management's Responsibility for the Schedule

Practitioner's Responsibility for the Schedule

Our responsibility is to express a conclusion on the accompanying schedule of remuneration and expenses based on our review. We conducted our review in accordance with Canadian generally accepted standards for review engagements, which require us to comply with relevant ethical requirements.

A review of a schedule of remuneration and expenses in accordance with Canadian generally accepted standards for review engagements is a limited assurance engagement. The practitioner performs procedures, primarily consisting of making inquiries of management and others within the entity, as appropriate, and applying analytical procedures, and evaluates the evidence obtained.

The procedures performed in a review are substantially less in extent than, and vary in nature from, those performed in an audit conducted in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion on this schedule.

Conclusion

Based on our review, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the schedule of remuneration and expenses – Chief and Councillors for the year ended March 31, 2025 is not, in all material respects, in accordance with the First Nations Financial Transparency Act.
